Administrative history

The Cosmo Drama Club was established in 1991 by Dorothy Evans. The organization performed dramatic and comedic material for a variety of audiences; however, their primary audience was seniors. The Cosmo Senior Citizens Centre was the organization's home base, but they performed at other locations in Moose Jaw and Saskatchewan. The club put on three annual productions in the spring and fall as well as a Christmas show. They also would take their skits to senior centres and retirement homes. The Cosmo Drama Club official disbanded on March 22, 2006.

Fonds level scope and content

This fonds reflects the activities of the Cosmo Drama Club. It is comprised of three series: general business records, scrapbooks, and skits and workshops. It includes financial records, such as receipts and account balances, meeting minutes, memorabilia, skit scripts and an audio cassette tape of a workshop.
