Administrative history

Crescent Park Foundation Inc. was formed in 1971 by Geoff Hawkins, Dr. Gerald Parkins, and others with the intent of improving the quality of Crescent Park. The foundation was registered under the Societies' Act of Saskatchewan on June 21, 1971. The foundation later became incorporated as a non-profit corporation and adopted its formal name.

The foundation has undertaken many projects such as the installation of fountains in the Serpentine, the construction of various park entrances, the implementation of a wheelchair ramp, and the installation of an enhanced park water fountain.
