Dates: 1953-2019 (inclusive)

Extent: 42.67 m: 39.455 m of textual records, 88 photographs, 24 negatives, 102 CDs, 137 audio cassettes, 30 video cassettes, 10 DVDs, 18 reels of microfilm, 52 cm of published material [transferred to Special Collections – Shortt].

Biographical note: James Rodger Miller was born in Cornwall, Ontario, 28 April 1943. He earned his BA (1966), MA (1967) and PhD (1972) from the University of Toronto. His PhD thesis, “The Impact of the Jesuits’ Estates Act on Canadian Politics, 1888-1891,” was under the supervision of D.G. Creighton. He joined the University of Saskatchewan in 1970 as assistant professor history, and by 1979 had been promoted to full professor. In 2001 he was appointed Canada Research Chair in Native-Newcomer Relations.

Dr. Miller is a nationally recognized historian and the author or editor of nine books and numerous articles in leading academic journals. Skyscrapers Hide the Heavens (1989), a history of Indian/white relations in Canada, was recognized as a 1993 outstanding North American book on the subject of human rights by the Gustavus Myers Centre for the study of Human Rights; Shingwauk’s Vision, widely regarded as a seminal work on Native residential schools, was named the co-winner of the non-fiction category of the Saskatchewan Book Awards (1996) and winner of the J. W. Dafoe Prize for the book which best contributes to the understanding of Canada or its place in the world (1997). He was named a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada, was awarded the University of Saskatchewan Distinguished Researcher award, and received the SSHRC Gold Medal for Achievement, that agency’s highest honour. He retired from the University of Saskatchewan in 2014 as Professor Emeritus. Miller was awarded the Order of Canada in 2014, and invested on 18 November 2015.

Miller’s publications include:

- Equal Rights: The Jesuits’ Estates Act Controversy*, 1979
- Skyscrapers Hide the Heavens: A History of Indian-White Relations in Canada*, 1989
- Sweet Promises: A Reader on Indian-White Relations in Canada*, 1991
- Big Bear (Mistahimusqua)*, 1996
- Shingwauk’s Vision: A History of Native Residential Schools*, 1996
- Bounty and Benevolence: A Documentary History of Saskatchewan Treaties*, 1998
- Lethal Legacy: Current Native Controversies in Canada*, 2004
- Reflections on Native-Newcomer Relations: Selected Essays*, 2004
- Compact, Contract, Covenant: Aboriginal Treaty-Making in Canada*, 2009
- Residential Schools and Reconciliation: Canada Confronts its History*, 2017

Scope and content: This fonds contains materials relating to Miller’s publications, lectures, and presentations; his work with various associations and bodies, including the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council; his departmental and university commitments; and his work with the University of Saskatchewan Faculty Association.

Arrangement: This fonds has been acquired over the course of five separate accruals, each of which has been arranged and described separately.

Accrual 1 – 1112-156 – listing begins page 3 – Boxes 1-68
Accrual 2 – 2012-070 – listing begins page 52 – Boxes 69-96
Accrual 3 – 2013-091 – listing begins page 75 – Boxes 97-109
Accrual 4 – 2014-134 – listing begins page 84 – Boxes 110-187
Accrual 5 – 2019-089 – listing begins page 141 – Boxes 188-205

This guide brings together accessions 2011-064, 2011-081, 2012-070, 2013-091, 2014-044, 2014-051, 2014-060, 2019-089.

All material donated to the University Archives & Special Collections by JR Miller, between 2011 and 2019.

Restrictions apply – please consult archivist. The donor requested one file be closed until 30 years after his death; other files may contain personal information and will have to be redacted prior to access by researchers. Miller’s frank correspondence, and his tendency to reuse paper when printing, means that while virtually every file should be reviewed prior to release, the items to be redacted are minimal within each file. Please consult an archivist.

The boxes have been numbered consecutively across all accruals.

Further accruals expected.

 Note: The following represent a sampling of Miller's financial records. Some have been kept intact to reflect Miller's recordkeeping practices and are indicated as such following, however most have been heavily culled. All files newer than 2006 have also been kept intact and may be culled through after the seven year holding period. Files contain materials ranging from personal and professional expense claims, and receipts to taxation forms, to correspondence relating to Miller's work as a historian, writer, and consultant (particularly in legal cases pertaining to residential school abuse). Information on book sales and payment information for services rendered are also included. Miller has also collected numerous news clippings on taxation.*

Fifth accrual
2019-089

3.65 m of textual records, 1 DVD, 1 photograph; 52.64 cm of published material. – 1969-2019 (inclusive); 2002-2017 (predominant).

Scope and content: This accrual adds to the already comprehensive Miller fonds, documenting his publications, presentations; his work with various associations and bodies, including the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council; his departmental and university commitments; etc. This accrual is particularly notable given his academic reputation at this time for work relating to Canada and the First Nations. His stature and knowledge in this area made him sought after for peer reviews of related topics, and a supervisor / external reviewer for MA and PhD theses being written on Indigenous-related subjects. As such, this accrual adds significant documentation not only relating to Miller's research in this area, but the interests and work of other academics across Canada. Of particular note are the interviews Miller did for his most recent publication, Residential Schools and Reconciliation: Canada Confronts its History, 2017; and the section of material relating to his time on the Board of Historic Sites and Monuments. Files within that series similarly identify some of the issues being debated over reconciliation and relationship between First Nations and settler Canadians.

Arrangement: This fonds has been acquired in 4 separate accruals, which have been arranged and described separately. Box numbering remains consistent throughout.

This accrual follows the same series organization as found in the original accession:

1. Personal
 - 1.1 General
 - 1.2 Consulting Work
 - 1.3 Correspondence
2. Academic – Publications, Presentations and Research
 - 2.1 Articles
 - 2.2 Books
 - 2.3 Book Reviews
 - 2.4 Conference Presentations and Other Addresses
3. Assessments (Peer Review)
 - 3.1 Manuscripts (Articles, Books, and Theses)
 - 3.2 Grants
 - 3.3 Tenure and Promotion
4. Associations and External Committees
5. Clippings
6. Lectures / Courses Taught
 - 6.1 Classes
7. Projects
8. Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council (SSHRC)
 - 8.1 General
 - 8.2 Published
9. University of Saskatchewan
 - 9.1 General

9.2 Department of History
9.3 Leave - Japan
10. University of Saskatchewan Faculty Association

Please note that not all series / subseries are found in each accrual.

Please note that there is some overlap between series: conference or other presentations may be revised for publication; correspondence files may include materials relating to the University or the department of history; etc.

Some material has been restricted. The donor requested one file be closed until 30 years after his death; other files may contain personal information and will have to be redacted prior to access by researchers. Miller's frank correspondence, and his tendency to reuse paper when printing, means that while virtually every file should be reviewed prior to release, the items to be redacted are minimal within each file. Please consult an archivist.

Box numbers continue from the previous accruals.

Guide to this accrual prepared by Cheryl Avery, University Archives & Special Collections.

Donated to the University of Saskatchewan Archives by JR Miller in 2019.
