

MG 524 – Jervis Yates collection

MSS 18

Dates: 1827-1931, nd., 1988.

Extent: 6 cm of textual material

Custodial note: Papers acquired by the Special Collections library for the Morton Manuscript collection, before the Archives and Special Collections merged. Commentaries and photocopies have been added to the collection over time.

Restrictions: There are no restrictions on access.

Original finding aid by Glen Makahonuk, 1978. Edited for formatting by Amy Putnam, 2019.

Contents:

- a) Jervis Yates manuscript diary, 1827-31: contains correspondence, business accounts of the new Hall Mill, and receipts for making paints and other substances.
- b) D.C. Apelt file pertains to his transcript of the first part of the Jervis Yates manuscript, made so as to save wear on the original. The file also contains some notes of D.C. Apelt's research of the places and people mentioned in the diary.
- c) Photocopy of manuscript.
- d) J.A. Houlding and G. Kenneth Yates, "Corporal Service, 1766-1783: Quebec, Saratoga, and the Convention Army." October, 1988.

A copy of the article they submitted for publication to the Journal of the Society for Army Historical Research national Army Museum, Royal Hospital Road, London.