Boxes V-125 -V-131

Biographical history

Mary Doreen Barber (Jackson) was born in Cabri, Saskatchewan on August 18, 1932. She married Sydney Barber in April 1954 and moved to Parkbeg the following summer. She was a trained teacher and had two children: Vivian and Brian. She died on October 24, 2011 at Pioneer Lodge in Moose Jaw. She enjoyed reading and writing; she wrote a column for the Herbert Herald about Parkbeg-Mortlach events and news and served as the editor of Parkbeg Reflections. Parkbeg Reflections is a community history book about the Parkbeg trading area and subsequent settlers in the town from approximately 1860 – 1980.

Fonds level scope and content

Mary Barber fonds contains 87.5 cm of textual records concerning the writing of the community history book Parkbeg Reflections. There is only one series within this fonds, Writing: Parkbeg Reflections' Family Histories. This series is made up of manuscript and typescript drafts of the family histories section of Parkbeg Reflections.

Series level description

Writing: Parkbeg Reflections' Family Histories

Dates: [197-].

Extent: 87.5 cm of textual records.

Scope and Content: This series contains the manuscript and typescript drafts of the family histories section of Parkbeg Reflections. There are over 350 family history drafts included in the series.
