Administrative history

It isn't clear when the Times Herald Chapel was formed, but their earliest recorded meeting was November 9, 1937 at 4:05 PM which was held for the passing of coworker A. Bell Bennett. Meetings were held multiple times a year, and in various locations such as the CPR Station Dining Room, and the Moose Jaw Times Herald lunchroom. Many of the minutes are signed by Earl Bush who held the position of secretary for multiple terms, for many years. Earl Bush had worked for the paper for 49 years.

The last recorded meeting was dated December 10, 1975.

Scope and content

This fonds contains two meeting minutes books for the Times-Herald Chapel from 1935 to 1975. The minutes books also contain notes requesting that meetings take place, and a letter indicating to a particular employee that further lateness will result in termination.
