RG 2177 - The President's Advisory Committee on the Status of Women

Dates: 2007

Extent: OS textual materials, 4 CD-R; 26 color photographs

Background: In October 1990, President Ivany established a President's Advisory Committee on the Status of Women to provide information and advice on issues that affect women on campus. The President's Advisory Council on the Status of Women continues to play an important role in addressing gender-related issues on campus. The membership of the Council is representative of the groups at the University and consequently is able to bring forward issues affecting a wide range of women in our community.

Scope and Content: This material primarily relates to a 2007 project undertaken by the PACSW celebrating 100 years since the first women graduated from the University of Saskatchewan.

Restrictions: There are no restrictions on access.
