Saskatchewan Technical Institute fonds

Administrative history

The Saskatchewan Technical Institute Palliser campus was originally located in Regina, however, in 1959, Piggott Construction began building a new campus in Moose Jaw. The college was called the Saskatchewan Technical Institute until 1989 when it merged with the Coteau Range Community College and became Saskatchewan Institute of Applied Science and Technology Palliser Campus. The school focuses on technical and skill training. There are over 15 000 students at the school's four campuses in Moose Jaw, Regina, Prince Albert and Saskatoon.

Scope and content

This fonds contains drafts and preparations for the SIAST's yearbooks from 1981-1986, meeting minutes of the SRC from 1980, and information booklets from 1976-1981. It includes page layouts, prints of photographs, negatives, meeting minutes, booklets, and a blueprint.
