

MG 136 – Student Medical Society fonds

Dates: 1923-1984 (inclusive); 1965-1980 (predominant).

Extent: 90 cm of textual records.

Historical note: The Student Medical Society was formed in 1921. Open to all students registered in the School (later, College) of Medicine, the SMS was established to promote the interests and welfare of medical students with regard to their educational, social and athletic activities. As the Society developed and matured, it increasingly acted as a communications link between the students and the faculty of medicine. In 1968 the SMS launched Interface, a magazine dealing with issues and topics of interest and concern to the medical fraternity.

Scope and content: The fonds contains correspondence, minutes, reports and published material pertaining to the activities of the Society.

Arrangement: The papers are organized into two series:

- | | |
|----------------------|-----------|
| I. GENERAL | Pages 1-2 |
| II. INTERFACE | Page 4. |

Restrictions: Personal information related to faculty, students, staff and alumni is restricted.

Donated to the University Archives by the Student Medical Society, September 1992. (Accn. #992-43).

Further accruals expected.
